

MAHAG Audi Zentrum, Germany

The MAHAG Audi Center was founded in 1923 as a family company and has grown up to a successful european automotive trading company.

The company also relies on the highest standards according to its building management system (BMS). The highest levels of profitability and an optimum of energy efficiency are achieved by the use of DEOS technology.